

New Jersey Department of Children and Families Policy Manual

Manual:	NJAC	NJ Administrative Code Excerpts	Effective Date:
Title	10	Human Services
Chapter	133G	Client Information	5/21/2007
Subchapter:	4	Disclosure Of Information To The Media And Public About A Child Fatality Or Near Fatality
Section	7	Ability to seek court relief if denied information about a child fatality or near fatality (N.J.A.C. 10:133G-4.7)

§10:133G-4.7 Ability to seek court relief if denied information about a child fatality or near fatality

If the Director or designee or a representative of the Department of Children and Families' Office of Public Information denies the media or a member of the public access to information about a child fatality or near fatality under these rules, he or she may seek disclosure of the information through the Chancery Division of the Superior Court, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 9:6-8.10a.f.

-End-